Keep your natural balance

Keep your natural balance

Xlim is an innovative nutritional concept which contributes in a natural manner to a balanced body weight. Various combinations of herbal and tea extracts have a positive effect on body metabolism by supporting weight loss or by keeping the weight you feel comfortable with. Xlim encourages healthy nutrition and a new sense of well-being over the long-term.

The Concept: Re-thinking and setting goals

Many diets promise drastic results. However, maintaining the achieved weight loss presents the greater challenge. There is a better way than just counting calories and living with continual feeling of guilt! Herbal and tea extracts which naturally optimise your body's metabolism combined with a comprehensive wellness concept will lead to success. As an added benefit – they taste great! Losing weight doesn't need to be a torture!

Only someone who feels comfortable with his or her body can really make a lasting change. A positive attitude is reflected in healthy nutrition combined with regular exercise – for example, walking, jogging, biking or swimming – which serves to strengthen the heart and circulatory system and to increase metabolism and general well-being. Xlim is the perfect supplement to achieve or maintain the body weight you personally feel comfortable with.

The Xlim-Effect: Natural Balance

Xlim is based on the power of nature. Depending on their function, these 100 % natural herbal and tea extracts serve to increase the rate of metabolism, to reduce appetite and to purify the body systems. The four basic Xlim concepts can be easily integrated into numerous consumer concepts – with an emphasis on beverages. The many available flavour combinations assure abundant variety.

The special Xlim-effect: For your customers, an overall and balanced sense of well-being – and for you, a well conceived concept for your market success.

The Trend: Weight loss with a wellness factor

With Xlim, the Plantextrakt concept is right in line with the trend towards natural wellness. The combination of intelligent weight management and enjoyable nutrition make Xlim a genuine innovation. The effectiveness of our extracts is based on scientifically proven principles and studies. We also confidently anticipate a high level of consumer acceptance, because Xlim exclusively uses well-known and well-documented plant extracts – and it can be ideally combined with various wellness concepts. Xlim's success as part of a new generation of functional food products is guaranteed.
